

Live Music

January/February

JANUARY -----

SAM BURCHFIELD

When: 1/10 from 8-11 p.m.

Where: LO-Fi Brewing

His latest album "Me & My Religion" was produced with his touring band The Scoundrels. It is the first collaboration for the group after years of paying dues to the highway. Colin Agnew (drums), Trygve Myers (bass) and Ryan Plumley (guitar) accompanied Burchfield to Muscle Shoals, Alabama, along with Nashville producer Rachael Moore to record the album.

SYMPHONIE FANTASTIQUE

When: 1/10 and 1/11 at 7:30 p.m.

Where: Gaillard Center

During this concert, you'll have a once-in-a-lifetime experience with the Charleston Symphony, featuring the extraordinary violinist Anne Akiko Meyers and revered Austrian conductor Hans Graf. You'll be captivated by Ravel's "Mother Goose" and Barber's "Violin Concerto," as well as the epic orchestral masterpiece that is Berlioz's "Symphonie fantastique." From tender love scenes to a gripping march to the scaffold and an opium-fueled nightmare, Berlioz's mesmerizing composition takes you on a thrilling, unforgettable journey.

CHRIS JANSON

When: 1/16 at 8 p.m.

Where: Charleston Music Hall

Chris Janson is a proud member of the Grand Ole Opry and a multi-platinum songwriter and artist. His hits include "Buy Me a Boat," "Fix a Drink" and "Good Vibes." Rolling Stone proclaimed him "a live legacy in the making."

HALESTORM'S LZZY AND JOE

When: 1/22 at 7 p.m.

Where: Charleston Music Hall

Backing their monster riffs and euphoric choruses with pure rock and roll attitude, the band released their third studio album "Into the Wild Life" (2015), featuring "Amen," "I Am the Fire" and "Dear Daughter." Halestorm's latest release is the third installment of their EP "ReAniMate" covers series, featuring takes on Whitesnake, Joan Jett & the Blackhearts, Soundgarden and more!

JAMES MCMURTRY W/ BETTYSOO

When: 1/28 at 8 p.m.

Where: Charleston Pour House

The celebrated songwriter's highly anticipated new record marks his debut on New West Records and garnered a slew of "Best Of 2021" awards plus an Americana Music Association Song of the Year nomination for "Canola Fields."

EDDIE 9V W/ PAUL MCDONALD & THE MOURNING DOVES

When: 1/30 at 8:30 p.m.

Where: Charleston Pour House

It would be near impossible to overstate the uniquely singular quality of Paul McDonald's voice and stage presence.

FEBRUARY

EDWIN MCCAIN

When: 2/1 at 8 p.m.

Where: Charleston Music Hall

Edwin McCain of Greenville, South Carolina, is an alternative and indie rock guitar player. While his albums are released under his name, he does have a permanent band, referred to as the Edwin McCain Band.

THE ARCADIAN WILD W/ OH, JEREMIAH

When: 2/4 at 6 p.m.

Where: Charleston Pour House

The Arcadian Wild is a four-piece indie folk/pop group from Nashville. Led by songwriters Isaac Horn and Lincoln Mick and Bailey Warren on fiddle, The Arcadian Wild confidently inhabits and explores an intersection of genre, blending the traditional with the contemporary.

BOURBON, BLUES, & BONFIRES

When: 2/8 from 3-7 p.m.

Where: The Refinery

The Refinery presents the 2nd Annual Bourbon, Blues, & Bonfires Festival! We invite you to join us on Saturday, Feb. 8 for this unique event, where casual sophistication meets the world of carefully curated bourbons, soulful blues and the warm allure of crackling bonfires.

TELL ME LIES – THE FLEETWOOD MAC EXPERIENCE

When: 2/14 at 9 p.m.

Where: Charleston Pour House

Tell Me Lies showcases the timeless hits of Fleetwood Mac, a band renowned for their exceptional songwriting and energetic live performances. The accomplished members of Tell Me Lies have been creating music together in various styles and combinations for many years. It was only natural for them to unite and honor the legacy of Fleetwood Mac.

PENELOPE ROAD

When: 2/19 at 10 p.m.

Where: Charleston Pour House

Hailing from the vibrant music scene of Atlanta, Penelope Road is a five-piece band that boldly embraces the self-awarded label of “stanky funky junk.” Their sound is a captivating fusion of ‘70s rock, funk and soul, culminating in a distinctive and unforgettable musical experience. 🌿